

CLOSING SCENES OF THE FLOOD

1. The waters continued to rise to the high windows, and the billows dashed upon the drenched roofs like angry seas.
2. Men fled away to the mountains and from vantage points watched the relentless, cruel persuer from afar.
3. Animals were wandering around below barking, baying and roaring with a fury that drove them mad.
4. Above the surging deep there screamed the affrighted eagle and the vulture, enraged by hunger.
5. At last there was but one hilltop left.
 1. There the strongest and fiercest of the sons of men gathered.
 2. There were heard the prayers, and oaths, and curses and promises, that made the ~~the~~ roar of the wild beasts quiet.
6. The lightening at midnight showed the dreary wastes on which no stars glittered.
7. Amid the thunders that shook the universe the last strong man plunged into the infinite gulf, "And all flesh died that moved upon the earth.

NOTES USED SUNDAY NIGHT AT DEARBORN VALLEY: 2+9-64