

"Four Things We may do to our Enemies"

1. We should love our enemies.
  1. They may be worth more to you than your friends.
  2. Your enemies may attempt to hurt you, but you can compel them to help you.
  3. By their criticisms they may seek to wound you, but you can profit by their bitter words and increase your humility.
  4. Your friends may fear to tell you the truth about your weaknesses lest they lose your friendship through frankness, but your enemy has no such fears.
  5. Your enemy will never stupefy you with flattery nor kull you into complacency with false praise. Therefore love your enemies. WHY? Jesus said:

1. Love them: Matthew 5:44.
2. We should forgive them: Matt. 6:15.
3. We should pray for them: Matt. 5:44
*1. Jesus' Prayer - Luke 13:34
2. Stephen's act - Acts 7:60, Paul's 2 Tim. 4:14*
4. Do good to them: Rom. 12:20. the story of the little girl with the bouquet of flowers.
