

1-If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink. For thou shalt heap coals of fire upon his head, and the Lord shall reward thee. Proverbs 25:21:22.
Romans 12:20..Read.

2-Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink:

1-If your enemy suffers?

2-If your enemy is in need-do him a kindness.

3-Relieve his wants in a kind, unostentatious manner.

3-The way in which this work must not be done: Ephesians 6:6;

Not with eye-service, as men pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart.

Colossians 3:12;

Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering

4-Not with eye service, as men pleasers

1-Eye-service is work done only to please the eye.

2-Eye service cannot bear test.

3-Eye service may good work done only when the master's eye is upon the worker.

4-Not grudgingly, murmuringly but with cheerfulness.

2-In so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

1-The most excruciating punishment to a man is to make him feel that he has done wrong to one who loves him.

2-In giving him food and drink:

1-You will cause him to feel and regret in his own heart the wrong he has done you.

2-You will melt his enmity and change him into a friend.

3-And the Lord shall reward thee.....
Matthew 6:3-4;6-

4-The Father's open rewards:

1-With friends.

2-Sincere and humble piety, finding gracious expression in kindly, thoughtful, generous, and self-denying service, will be sure to gain open and public recognition.

3-Men want that Christian goodness in all the life-spheres; and they are quick enough at recognizing it when they see it.

4-Some one has said,

Christian goodness is no violet "born to blush unseen, and waste its sweetness on the desert air.
