

1. The period described. "The Day of Trouble."
 We are often called to pass through trouble in the present world
 We sometimes are troubled:
  1. With opposition from the world. 2Tim. 3:10
  2. With great bodily infirmities. 2Cor. 12:7-9
  3. With tormenting fears. 2 Cor. 7:5-6.
2. The DIRECTION GIVEN. "Call upon me."
 This great duty, "Call upon me" is agreeable to our nature. In trouble we crave sympathy & help
 IN THE DAY OF TROUBLE IT IS A NATURAL THING THAT WE FLY TO THOSE WE LOVE.:The child.
 How shall we call upon God?
  1. In the language of deprecation. Ps. 143:1-2
 deprecate: An apologetic manner. Lu. 18:9-14
  2. In the language of petition. Ps. 69:14-15
  3. In the language of confession. 1 John 1:9
  4. In the language of submission. Mat. 26:42
3. The consolation introduced. "I will deliver thee."
 1. At the best time, medium, manner.
4. The consequence anticipated. "Thou shalt glorify me."
 1. Matt. 5:13-16; 1Cor. 15:58.

RESOURCE AND COMFORT IN TROUBLE. Psalms 50:14. 1