

Review of Providence. Joshua 1:1-13.

1. And they presented themselves before God.

Joshua reviews

God's dealings with his people:

1. Speaking of their call. Verse 2

2. Their deliverance from bondage in the country of Egypt. Verse 5

3. How God guided them. Verse 7

4. How God gave them strength in battle. Vs Verses 9-11.

5. God gave them a goodly land. Verse 13

2. This was Joshua's farewell speech.

Eminent servants of God were remarkable for their solicitude respecting the course of events likely to follow their decease.

"When I am gone let heaven and earth come together" is a sentiment with which a good man can have no sympathy. Not e the instructions given by:

1. Moses, Deut. 31; 2. David, 1 Kings 2;

3. Peter, 2 Pet. 1:15; 4. Paul, 2 Tim. 4:1-8

3. It is well to review the past... For the life which is wholly occupied with the present is necessarily superficial. The past lives in memory; in effects; it will be called up for judgment. This review should make us:

- 1- grateful for the goodness of God.
- 2- consciousness of our own failings
- 3- wise from the lessons of experience
- 4- Diligent to redeem the time, Col. 4:5
