

Luke 16:25;

But Abraham said, 'Son, Remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

- 1-The "certain rich man" must be taken as a real historical person.
- 2-This startling appeal:

Is made to his memory.

1-Memory is a marvellous gift:

- 1-Loss of memory is loss of usefulness.
- 2-It is the loss of dignity and responsibility.
- 3-It is the mind that remembers now and in eternit

2-Memory is the storehouse of the soul:

- 1-Its capacity for storage is tremendous. Be careful what you put into it as such goods may be required again.
- 2-It may be a palace of precious keepsakes, or a chamber of horrors.
- 3-Memory is the seed plot of this life, and the reference book for the coming judgement.

3-Memory is affected by the state of the heart:

1-Son Remember:

1-What we are choosing now is determined by what we love. If we love the world our hearts will be set on it.

2-Some set their hearts on things above:

Col. 3:1-2;

If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. 2-Set your affections on things above.

3-Some set their hearts on things of the world:

1-John 2:15; Love not the world.

4-Memory is the reproductive faculty:

1-A mirror that reflects back what has been set before it. SON, REMEMBER. Peter wept when he thought thereon. And Peter remembered the words of Jesus. Matthew 26:75

words of Jesus. Matthew 23:23
