

1. Faith; Noun; OF. F. Latin to English.

1. Complete confidence in some one or something open to question or suspicion.

2. Faith is a real and practical power in all human conduct: Example

1. We trust our senses though they often fail us.

2. We trust men; a battle must often be risked on the intelligence of a spy.

3. A merchant commits his ships, with all his fortunes on board, to a hired captain, whose temptations are enormous. Without this society could not hold together for a day.

2. The grounds of faith.

1. The ground of faith is evidence.

Christ's

miracles were not so much convictions for the unbelieving as confirmations³⁰ for the believing. Mark 16:17; Acts 4:29

2. Our faith may rest in a Person; Statement; Character; or Doctrine.

3. Our proper ground of faith is Jesus.

3.

3. The reward of faith. This is gaining the thing desired.

1. Paul: "I press toward the mark." Phil. 3:14

2. Increased faith. Luke 17:5.

3. Kindling faith in others. The confident hopeful man cheers all about him.

4. The reward of faith is eternal life.

R.m. 2:6-7; 6:23; 2 Tim. 4:6-8.
