

THE HEALING FOUNTAIN...THE FOUNTAIN FOR UNCLEANNESS...THE OPENED FOUNTAIN.

Zechariah 13:1; 14:8-9.

1. Introduction:

1. A fountain denotes fulness...It is not a well, cistern, nor reservoir; but a fountain of inexhaustible fulness.
2. A fountain denotes sufficiency. It is ever full and ever flowing. There is enough power in the blood of Christ to cleanse the vilest of the vile.

2. The object of opening this fountain was to cleanse from sin.

Matthew 26:26-28; Eph 1:7; Col. 1:13-14; 1 John 1:6-7; Revelation 1:4-6.

3. When was the fountain opened?

1. It was to be "opened to the house of David, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem." It was formerly opened then in Jerusalem where remission of sins was preached for the first time.

Luke 24:45-53; Acts 2.

It is not the deceitful brook or summer stream which runs away, nor the broken cistern which holds no water.

4. The perpetuity of the fountain.
 1. It never closes. Its store is never wasted nor exhausted. It is an ever-flowing, never failing fountain to supply ever demand.

2. It is a perpetual spring, which makes the vally of Baca well, the wilderness glad, and the desert to rejoice and blossom as the rose.
