

THE POVERTY THAT MADE OTHERS RICH.
2 Corinthinas 8:9.

- M. The poverty of the Mac edonian churches; yet others are made rich by them. Their pattern of Charity:
1. They gave under very unfavorable circumstances:
 - 1..They were in much affliction. V.2
 2. They were in deep poverty. V. 2
 2. Though afflicted and poor they gave largely. Verse 3.
 1. Their danger was not that they might give too little, but that they might give too much.
 2. Many ask how little they can give...The Macedonian Christians asked how much?
 3. They gave voluntarily. Verse 3.
 1. Compulsory kindness is of little worth.
 4. They gave without urgent appeal.
 1. They gave of their own accord.
 2. Did not require a collection ser.
 5. They gave themselves as well as their monetary contribution. Verse 5.
 1. To the Lord; 2. To Paul

REMARKS:

Notes On Israel: Why Israel Failed

1. Lack of Faith:

1. James 1:6

2. Lack of Self-respect:

1. The world is filled with moral cowards; Men who are not willing to stand for that which they know to be right.

3. They were not willing to pay the price.

We live in a world that is, in general, made up of intellectual cowards: people who are afraid to think for themselves. In matters of Christianity they are afraid to speak their ~~convictions~~ conviction. They are afraid of the people
