

THE POWER OF WORDS

1. We read our news papers not so much to find out what has been done in Asia, Europe, Africa and Central America, but to find out what has been said.
2. We read these reports we are always reminded of the power in words:
3. Words can wreck a world:
 1. Words hurl reason from the throne
 2. Words can wreck and ruin nations
Setting nation against nation in a struggle that will send the blood of men flowing on the battle fields.
4. Words can revive and restore.
Malachi 3:16
5. Words can change our whole way of living.
 1. A young woman said: "My home could have been a little bit of heaven. My father was wealthy, and we had a lovely house; but my mother and father quarreled with each other all the time, and in place of a little bit of heaven our home became a little corner of hell.
