

1. FOUR FACTS THAT ARGUE AGAINST SECULAR SOLICITUDE-WORRY
ANXIETY

- ~~1. Man is superior to all secular blessings that he requires. Verse 24~~
2. That this over-anxiety is utterly ineffective. Worry will not change things. Verse 27
3. That the anxious seeking after these temporal blessings is a characteristic of Pagan life. "For after all these things do the Gentiles seek." Verse 32
4. That the anxious efforts for the temporal supplies of the future, in the case of Christ's disciples, are entirely unnecessary. "For your heavenly Father knoweth." Verse 32

2. THREE THINGS SUPPORT THE ABOVE FACTS:

1. THE CHARACTER OF GOD. HE IS OUR FATHER AND KNOWETH OUR NEEDS.

1. If our wants are not supplied by him it must be for one of three reasons:
  1. He has not the capacity...God that Made World.
  2. He has not the disposition. Jesus represented as Our Father.
  3. He is not aware of them. Christ said, "He knoweth that ye have need of all these things."

2. THE CHARACTER OF RELIGION. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God...."

1. If a man is a Christian he will have necessary food. It will come to him in a natural way...not a miraculous way.

3. THE CHARACTER OF THE FUTURE. "Tomorrow shall take thought for the things

1. Tomorrow will bring its own blessings.

3. Today, let our steps be free and firm. Let us hear and bear the passing storms of the day...anticipating the sunshine of tomorrow.
