

"The Tendency of Christianity"
Romans 12:11

---

1. The Tendency of Christianity is to promote industry:
  1. It teaches the value of time.
  2. Christianity presents numerous and important things to be done.
  3. It inclines men to be conscientious in the improvement of each moment.
  4. Christianity takes away the mind from those pleasures and pursuits which generate and promote indolence.
    1. An idle man and Christian are names which do not harmonize
2. In Christianity there must be:
  1. Fervency...Ardour...Intensity
  2. Intense zeal, Acts 18:25
3. Serving...regarding yourselves as the servants of the Lord.
