

1. Past Harvest, Jeremiah 8:20. We notice here two words:
  1. Summer; 1. Of life; 2. of reason; 3; Of opportunities.
  2. Harvest; 1. Of knowledge; 2. Of privilege 3. Of blessings.
  3. What harvest, what summers (spiritually) we have had:
    1. Ingathering of many souls; yet you are not saved!
    2. Some in your home converted, but you are not saved.
    3. The day is near when you will have to cry in the sight of approaching death "The harvest is past, and I am not saved!"

2. Present Harvest, Matthew 9:37. Here the Jahn image changes; instead of a flock of bleating sheep (verse 36) scattered over a hill side, we see waving fields of corn, ripe for the harvest, only needing the reapers to gather in its golden wealth. Three 4:31-35 things thoughts here:

1. There is a harvest in the world. 2. The harvest is plenteous: It covers a vast area; many souls are involved. 3. Many laborers are needed.

3. Future Harvest, Matthew 13:39. Here the fact announced...THE END OF THE WORLD.
Matt. 24:1-35; 2 Thessalonians 1:7-9.
