

Ask any thoughtful man:

WHAT MUST WE DO TO BE SAVED?

1. He must first realize he is lost.
2. The story of the personal workers:
 1. Do Christians live here?
 2. No they live down the street.
 3. But we are out working for Christ and what we want to know is are you lost?
4. Came back the answer, "No we are not lost we have lived here for fifteen years."

WHEN IS A MAN LOST?

1. Author Holt said, "A man is lost when he cannot define his present or plan his future."

DISCOVERING THAT HE IS LOST MAN OFTEN WILL REACT IN DIFFERENT WAYS.

1. "I think we are lost," produced an Adolph Hitler and his followers.
2. Some one said that, "Willie, IN THE DEATH OF A SALESMAN, and Blanche in STREET CAR NAMED DESIRE are good examples of lost souls on the stages of the world.

A GROUP OF SCIENTISTS SOME YEARS AGO:

1. Though proud of the achievements of science their unanimous answer was:
 1. Science alone will wreck the world.
 2. Religion through faith in God must show the way or we are lost

A FEELING OF LOSTNESS CAN OVERTAKE MANY GREAT RELATIONSHIPS:

1. Lostness can overtake and ruin a partnership in business. (2) Citizenship in a country or, (3) Membership in the church.

BUT THE QUESTION IS HOW ARE MEN LOST?

I would like to suggest some ways in which men are lost:

1. Men are some times lost:
1. In the dense fog of fear, anxiety and worry.
 2. They grope fanatically and even desperately, for a sure way to a level of clear vision.

2. Men are sometimes lost:
1. In the jungles of passion, hatred, and vengeance.
 2. They seem wholly unable to see men fairly or to cope with the events of the day.
 1. Under these conditions they often react in spasms of animal fury.

3. Men are some times lost:
1. Because they have not learned how to manage themselves in what they defeat and discouragement and thereby find themselves in full retreat from the inevitable encounters of life.

4. Finally men are lost because:
1. ~~Men are lost because~~ they have lot touch with God, with man and with themselves.
 1. They are not able in this condition to define their present or plan their future.

BUT THE QUESTION IS HOW ARE MEN LOST?

I would like to suggest some ways in which men are lost:
