

DEARBORN VALLEY SUNDAY NIGHT, July 7, 1963

WHEN YOU PRAY FOR OTHERS:

1. Your thoughts grow wider and higher.
2. Your selfishness melts away.
3. You become more Christlike.
4. You are a blessing to mankind.
5. You are loved by those who know you.
6. The habit of praying for others makes you more noble.

OF A BOOK ON PRAYER IT WAS SAID:

1. There is scarcely a word about what prayer and right thinking will do for me! It is all about what I can do for others.
2. THERE ARE MANY BOOKS: How to get what you want, how to acquire riches, how to find health, how to be famous. Even books on how to go to heaven. NOTE: With a bleeding world facing its worst crisis in all history, when it calls like a drowning man, it is exceedingly selfish to ask what advantage will come to me if I go to her rescue.
