

1-The scene:

1-The Sea of Galilee: Northern part of Palestine
Oval shaped; about 13 miles long and six wide.

2-

2-The scene here depicted seems to be an emblem of the condition, of the needs, of the fears, of the Church of Christ and certainly does set forth the:

1-The perpetual presence----The brotherly care... and the Divine dignity of the Lord Jesus Christ

3-The contrast:

1-The disciples were on the sea of Galilee:
2-We are upon the sea of life of this uncertain world.

1-They took Christ with them in the boat.

2-We have him with us always.

1-A storm arose and threatened their safety.

2-In this world we are exposed to the tempest of trials, doubt, and danger.

4-There are two questions in the record which represent the two movements of the narrative.

1-The question of the disciples,
"Hast thou no care"

2-It was the cry of impulse, and a cry which has often sprung from the heart of the Lord's people in their griefs and dangers.

1-It was a cry of fear:

1-Christians have the same natural passions as other men.

2-In times of bodily danger.

3-In scenes of public commotion and disaster

4-In circumstances of threatening and suffering to the Church, the fears of Christ's people have often been awakened and we cry

"Carest thou not that we perish"

2-It was a cry evincing some faith.

1-They called unto him, entreated him to save them.

3-A cry evincing some defect in faith.

5-The question of Jesus, "Have ye no faith."

Where is your faith: Luke 8:25.

1-It seems that their faith was weak:

1-After all the miracles they had witnessed
2-After all the wisdom and power Jesus had shown.

3-After all his teaching for months past, why should they not have had faith.

They should have had faith enough to feel secure in the presence of Jesus.

4-Hebrew 11:1-40, The faith chapter.....

6-The application of the lesson:

1-Let the unbelieving repent of their unbelief and look unto and call upon Jesus.

2-Let the doubting Christian be encouraged to put away his fears and to pray, "Lord, increase our faith."

3-Let the believing Christian remember that Christ's people can never perish.

"With Christ in the vessel,
I smile at the storm."
