

HANDOUT FOR LESSON 5
“BE NOT MANY OF YOU TEACHERS”

Moses was a great teacher, one like unto whom the Christ would be. Is James telling us not to be like him?

Eli taught Samuel who became a great servant of God. Should we not seek to lead disciples to great service?

There was no greater teacher than Jesus. In the Great Commission he commanded that we all be teachers. Did his brother James discourage us from being teachers?

Remember that you can find video, audio and full class notes of this lesson at

www.ThyWordIsTruth.com